Conference Tomorrow at Mudania Will Avert Break is Belief.

BRITAIN IS PATIENT

Withdrawal of English Troops is Taken as Favorable Sign.

(By the Associated Press)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.—With an armistice conference definitely fixed for tomorrow at Mudania, the peril of war between Great Britain and Turkey appeared less threatening today.

Great Britain's recession from the neutral zone control caused no little surprise and disappointment here but it was generally admitted this step was the only thing which could have stayed Mustapha Kemal Pasha's hand. It is pointed to as another evidence of England's patience and eager desire to avoid war.

Up to the time of the issuance of Brigadier General Harrington's temporizing note, Saturday night, the situation looked exceedingly critical. It is now conceded that his tact and tolerance, coupled with the arrival of re-enforcements from England, prevented the Turks from striking at Chank.

The situation Saturday afternoon was so strained that a break seemed inevitable. Saturday morning the Turkish forces were increased by 150 cavalry men and everything indicated the beginning of a hostile move.

New difficulties await the British at the armistice conference. It is known that the Kemalists will insist upon the British withdrawing from the Asiatic shores of the Dardanelles and immediate evacuation of Thrace by the Greeks.

Troop Movement To Be Suspended

(By the Associated Press)
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.—An immediate mutual agreement to suspend all movements of troops was expected here today to be the first outcome of the Mudania armistice conference which is to meet tomorrow.

The conference will discuss the occupation of Eastern Thrace by a detachment of interallied troops during the Greek army withdrawal. The expectation here is that the Greek evacuation will begin immediately after the conference, permitting the establishment of the Turkish administrative control.

General Harrington, the British commander-in-chief, will leave for Mudania on the dreadnaught Iron Duke early tomorrow. The Italian and French generals who are to attend also will make the trip on the battleship of their respective navies.

Soviets Protest Straits Blockade

(By the Associated Press)
MOSCOW, Oct. 2.—The Soviet Russian government has sent a note to England, France and Italy protesting against the blockade of the Dardanelles and insisting upon the removal of all restriction to the free passage of transportation through the straits.

The note says that the manner in which England "is endeavoring to control foreign seas and territories" shows indifference to the interest of Russia and other Black Sea states.

ACTIONS OF PASHA ARE ENDORSED BY ASSEMBLY

Youth Hurled Under Loaded Grain Wagon

Gus Austell, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Austell of Center, Okla., was killed instantly late Saturday afternoon when the team he was driving became frightened and ran away, throwing him from the wagon loaded with corn. Funeral services were held at ten o'clock Monday morning and burial took place in Center Cemetery.

Young Austell with a helper, Everett Ricketts, had been gathering corn and they were returning home, each with a wagon load. Ricketts told parents of the dead boy that as they were leaving the field about three miles northwest of Center he looked back to see if Austell was coming. He discovered the team running down the road and saw Austell's body where it had fallen.

N. T. Tarwater, who was passing on the road at the time, assisted Ricketts in taking the boy's body to Center. Austell was a cousin of Lady Mae Austell, who was drowned near Center several months ago. He is well known at Center and was a student in Center high school.

ODD FELLOWS OF STATE ASSEMBLE IN GRAND LODGE

Hundreds of Delegates Arrive in Ada Today; Others Coming.

ASSEMBLY IS OPENED

Lodgemen and Ladies Will Hold Open Meeting at College Tonight

Ada is in possession of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Delegates began arriving Sunday afternoon and every train today brought more. Local committees were kept busy but were well organized and there was not a hitch anywhere. It was stated that although some 1,200 of 1,500 delegates and visitors are expected by tomorrow, no trouble is anticipated in finding rooms for all. As the local committee has a good supply of autos ready at all times to transport the guests of the city anywhere they care to go, none will have occasion to walk any distance to their stopping places.

This morning was devoted to registration and committee meetings. There was considerable business for the committees and all assembled promptly.

This afternoon's program called for a meeting of Rebekah school of instruction at the I. O. O. F. hall, conducted by Mrs. Belle Black, president of the Rebekah assembly, and the conferring of the Grand Lodge degree at the city hall by the Odd Fellows. This evening the opening exercises will be held at the college auditorium at 8 o'clock, J. F. McKee presiding. This will be followed by a reception for the visitors. These events will be opened to the general public and everybody is invited.

Business sessions of the orders will begin tomorrow morning, the Odd Fellows assembling at the McSwain theatre and Rebekahs at the Methodist church.

Following is the program for this evening and the sessions of Tuesday and Wednesday:

Odd Fellowship was introduced into the United States in 1819 and the order has had a marvelous growth. For more than a century the I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs have carried on their missions of mercy and promoting the spirit of fraternalism. The three links have become an emblem recognized everywhere as certifying to loyalty to the cause of law and proclaiming that the wearer is a person who loves his fellow man.

FRATERNALISM

"Am I my brother's keeper?" was the defiant reply of Cain when the Lord brought him to judgment for the murder of Abel. It was made very plain to the generations which followed that every man is indeed his brother's keeper, although this is a lesson that has never been fully learned even to this day.

In the early dawn of creation man found it impossible to live to himself. He was surrounded by too many dangers to be able to cope with them successfully when depending upon his individual efforts. It was only when combined with others that he could hope to survive. This was the first lesson in fraternalism. Not only did man find strength in unity, but in time he found that banded together as brothers mankind could keep bright the ties of friendship and dwell in peace through cultivating a forbearing spirit. All the great philosophers and religious teachers of the ages stressed the beauties of the fraternal spirit, the blessings of peace and unity and the pursuit of truth. This led up to the deeper realization of man's duty to his fellows, especially those in distress. The Good Samaritan is a fine example of a true fraternalist. It was upon this foundation that the great fraternal orders of today have been builded.

The assumption of the duty as his brother's keeper was a great one for man. It meant sacrifice on his part and a willingness to forego some of his personal comforts and ease in times of prosperity for the sake of rendering aid to his brother in distress. The night might be dark and enemies might beset his path, but he must leave the comfort and safety of his own fireside and go to the aid of one who was in need, should the occasion demand. To the extent that he was willing to do this was he to become a true fraternalist.

Modern fraternal societies do not attempt to regulate a man's religious convictions. They recognize an All Wise Creator, the Father of all, and seek to do His will by extending the helping hand to His suffering children. They are not designed as a substitute for the church, but teachings and practices are such that their work is a great aid to the church.

As practiced today fraternalists rejoice together in time of sunshine, cling together in time of storm, care for the sick, bury the dead, befriend the helpless, provide homes for the homeless and teach patriotism and respect for the laws of the land. With such tenets it is not surprising that with the advance of civilization fraternal organizations have grown in strength and numbers. There is a great work for them to do and they are striving to perform the trust imposed upon them.

It goes without saying that Ada feels highly honored by having the representatives of two great orders as her guests. The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges well merit the respect in which they are held by the world and we hope to see the organizations prosper more and more as the days go by. We bid you welcome.

CONTROL OF THE DARDANELLES

For centuries the control of the Dardanelles has been the cause of more or less trouble. The nations of Europe have permitted the Turk to control it because each nation was afraid for any other great European power to get possession. With Great Britain controlling the only outlets from the Mediterranean to the great seas, other nations do not look with favor upon her controlling the Dardanelles and thus the entire Black Sea.

But Great Britain's control of Gibraltar and the Suez Canal has never in any way worked against civilization and the advancement of trade and commerce. In our opinion Great Britain's control of the Dardanelles is to be preferred to that of the Turk or Russia as long as Russia is controlled by a few political adventurers. Objection to an Allied control is that divided authority often causes more trouble than if the whole thing is left to one nation.

At all events, it is time to get the Dardanelles problem solved and the only apparent solution is for Great Britain to have undivided control.

William R. Hearst has long entertained a vaulting ambition to be a power in political life. Twice he has tried for the governorship of New York, once or twice for mayor of New York City and back in 1904 he tried to get the nomination for the presidency. He has lost every battle and his recent defeat for the gubernatorial nomination in New York means another wait on the benches for Mr. Hearst. However, he is a patient guy and perhaps some day he will be called to bat.

The British lion is still showing his teeth to the Turks on the Dardanelles. His bite is usually something to remember. The American eagle is the only bird or animal in recent centuries to twist his tail and get away with it.

Mahomet Comes Back.

(Oklahoma News)

Christianity has carried the mountains to Mahomet. The difference among Christians in Europe and the indifference of Christians in America have allowed the Crescent banner freshly drenched with Christian blood, to cross once more from Asia to the frontiers of European civilization.

All of which would be bad enough as it stands, but the worst, in all human probability, is yet to come. The Turk is a firebrand and his presence back in Europe, once more in the midst of the seething Balkans, is like a flaming torch thrusting about in a powder magazine. Sooner or later there is bound to be an explosion.

The rehabilitation of Turkey in Europe marks the betrayal of France of her recent allies, Rumania and Jugo-Slavia. These two nations—but recently vassals of the unspeakable Turks—have long experienced the callous brutality and the relentless reaction of the Mohammedan character.

France's insistence upon the Koran's return to Europe is shortsighted statesmanship even for the post-war diplomacy in Paris.

The Little Tentative no longer can trust France as against Turkey, while the Turks, always at heart in sympathy with German militarism, have been assisted by France to become formidable secret friends of Germany in rehabilitation.

But, France does not share the major responsibility alone. This situation, so dangerous to the peace of the whole world, would not have arisen if the American government had been loyal to its international duties.

It is a calamity to civilization that America dwells in uncouth isolation while seeds of a new world war are being sown.

SCIENTIFIC CRIMES.

(Wichita Daily News.)

The latest tools of criminals are displayed in New York at the international conference of police.

Detectives seem most interested in apparatus used by "rope workers." With the skill of "human flies," this breed of crooks get on a roof and climb down as many as 14 stories to commit robbery, using only their muscles and a clothes-line.

Burglars now have a fad of carrying their tools in violin and banjo cases.

Electricity is being used widely by yeggmen. Hooking to a light socket, they go through a safe door with electric drills. In blowing a safe they even use an electric fuse-exploder.

One detective says the yeggmen never have been able to perfect the use of acetylene torches for burning through steel vaults.

All around, the "scientific" tools of crime are disappointing to the curious. In the main they are crude about the same as a decade ago, with nothing startling as in "master mind" detective fiction.

Each professional criminal, the convinced police say, has a characteristic style of work peculiar to himself.

For instance, if a window is broken noiselessly by plastering flypaper on it to prevent the crash of falling glass, the police know instantly that the crook is one of a score or so who specialize in this method.

Further elimination is easy, for certain crooks work only on Saturday nights, at certain hours or only during storms.

Cocaine is the chief tool of the New York crook, says Detective Frank Quigley. He explains:

"Anybody that goes crooked begins taking it to steady his nerves. If a man shows a yellow streak, his pals make him take a big sniff of cocaine before they will go out on a job with him. I don't believe a loft burglar or any other dangerous crime has been pulled off in New York for years except after

Crime and the drug traffic go hand-in-hand. To attack crime at its roots and paralyze its growth, stop drug traffic. That is the way, and police know it, but it's easier said than done. The job, however, is not impossible.

(Ohio State Journal)

A certain news item which appeared in all the papers a week or so ago about a little old lady out in Oklahoma, probably has caused as much genuine interest and speculation as the late dispatches about the politics of nations. The old lady 81 years old, was an inmate of the Old Folks' home at Muskogee, until it was discovered that she had been drinking some wine, taking the grapes out of the back yard and hiding the still under her bed. The authorities called it stealing the grapes, and so they turned her out of the institution. And since then many of us have scanned the papers hoping to learn where that little old lady went, for she was homeless; and also wondering greatly what the Old Folks' home of Muskogee was for anyway if it wasn't to take care of old people with their idiosyncrasies and peculiarities. One fairly general characteristic of very old people is the desire to hide things away to smuggle things in and out of their own rooms, and to have little doings of their own that they keep quite to themselves. It is a part of human nature in senility, and you cannot change it. The old lady fusing in secret with her still was simply illustrating this development of old age, and the authorities should have been glad that she hid away nothing more dangerous than a few grapes.

ADA SHRINERS TO SEEK CEREMONIAL

Pontotoc County Members Invite Thanksgiving Meeting Here.

Bedouin temple is at Muskogee and India Temple at Oklahoma City.

There was a large attendance at the meeting and much enthusiasm was shown when it was proposed that state Shriners be invited here for a Thanksgiving Ceremonial.

Several committees were appointed and steps are to be taken to complete arrangements for the ceremonial. Opera Stars Praise Tanlac

Both Now Enjoy Fine Health

Mme. Rosina Agostini, soprano, and Sig. Guiseppe Agostini, tenor, noted opera stars, who declare their stomach troubles have been completely overcome since taking Tanlac.

"If ever a person felt like they had been made over I am that person, thanks to Tanlac," declared Mme. Rosina Agostini, noted leading soprano of the San Carlo Opera Co., residing at Hotel Grenoble, New York City.

"I suffered from a nervous rundown condition and got so I dreaded to face my audiences. But as soon as I started taking Tanlac I began to improve, and now I am perfectly normal."

The experience of Mme. Agostini's husband, Sig. Guiseppe Agostini, famous leading tenor of the same troupe, also shows the value of Tanlac as a tonic and stomach corrective. He said: "My stomach went back on me, and I soon got into pretty bad condition. I followed my wife's example and took Tanlac. It helped to fix me up in a short time, and now I always feel fit."

NOTE—The International Proprietary Co., distributors of Tanlac, have on file at their offices at Atlanta, Georgia, over fifty thousand signed statements from representative men and women from every State in the Union and every Province in Canada. Many of these are from prominent people in this city and section and have been previously published in this paper.

BUCK JONES CASE IS OPENED TODAY

Trial of Local Man Upon Rape Charge Started in District Court.

Machinery of the district court, well oiled for its grind upon an unusually heavy docket, was prepared Monday afternoon to open the regular October criminal term with the trial of Buck Jones, Ada, charged with rape.

The old jury venire of 36 names was revised and 14 men had been excused or reported not served up to noon. District Judge J. W. Bolen ordered a special venire of 20 names drawn and attorneys appeared confident that from this and the remainder of the old venire it would be easy to secure a jury to try Jones.

The case involves an alleged statutory offense in which defendant is charged with assaulting his own small niece, Mildred Jones, whose father is now in the state penitentiary.

Trial of the Bassenger murder case, originally docketed for today, was delayed until Tuesday when all attorneys can be present. It was understood that I. M. King, one of the defense attorneys, had been called to Ardmore Monday and probably would not return before Tuesday afternoon.

Drawing of the Jones jury was scheduled to start at 1:30 this afternoon and probably will not consume much time. It was predicted early in the day that testimony in the case would be opened before court adjourns this afternoon. The defense probably will finish its case before noon Tuesday if there are no delays.

Drawing of jurors in the Jones case was almost completed at 2:30 this afternoon. Huffar and Jones are representing the defense. Assistant County Attorney Hugh F. Mathis and R. C. Rowland are conducting the prosecution.

REAR ADMIRAL TO BE LAID TO REST

Charles E. Clark, Hero of Spanish-American War,
Dies at 79 Years.

(By the Associated Press)

LONG BEACH, Calif. Oct. 2.— Siple funeral services will be held here tomorrow afternoon for Rear Admiral Charles Edgar Clarke, retired, commander of the battleship Oregon during the Spanish American War, who died yesterday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs.
Charles F. Hughes, wife of Rear Admiral Hughes, commander of the Seventh Battle Division of the Pacific Fleet.

Admiral Clarke was 79 years of age and had been in excellent health until about ten days ago when an attack of heart trouble sent him to his bed. His son-in-laws were with him when death came.

The funeral will be held at the Hughes residence and will be attended only by close friends, who include many of the highest officials of the Pacific Fleet.

Rear Admiral Clarke is survived by a widow and two daughters.

Raced Against Time
It was Rear Admiral Charles E.
Clark who guided the battleship Oregon in its race against time on a voyage equal to half way around the world without a single serious mishap to men or machinery.

This remarkable race occurred during the opening days of the Spanish-American War in 1898.
Clark, then a captain, was 54 years old. He sailed from San Francisco on March 19.

Between him and his destination was the continent of South America, the gales and turbulent waters of the Straits of Ma-gellan where a Spanish torpedo-boat lurked also, and a fleet of formidable Spanish warships cruising in the Caribbean Sea. On the afternoon of the 67 sailing day the Oregon steamed into Jupiter Inlet on the coast of Florida unharmed and ready for battle.

It is the world's record which probably will never be equalled.
It probably will never again be attempted. The Panama Canal removes the necessity.

A modern battleship could be transferred from San Francisco to the Florida coast in less than 20 days.

An interesting anecdote is told how Clark came to be placed in command of that difficult and dangerous voyage.

"Has he the stick-to-it-iveness to take him clear through?" asked a naval authority of one of Clark's friends who was urging his appointment to the command of the Oregon.

"Did you ever see him play chess?" the friend replied.

"What has that to do with the case?"

Strategy of Chess
"Everything," was the answer.
"Strategy as learned on the chess board is not a bad training as a preliminary to naval tactics," and he continued to outline Clark's characteristic determination, which was noticeable even while playing chess, until the appointment was won.

Rear Admiral Clark was born in Vermont in 1843. At the age of 20
he had been ordered to the West Gulf Blockading Squadron in the Civil War before he had finished his second year at Annapolis. A year later he was following Farragut over the torpedo beds and past the forts in the battle of Mobile Bay.

Clark's naval career was varied.
He was shipwrecked off the coast of British Columbia in 1868 when the Suwanee floundered, and through the loss of his superior officers became the commander of 33 survivors. He organized them into a defense party to hold off 400 hostile Indians until rescue arrived.
He watched the Spaniards, whom he was later to engage in battle, bombard Valparaiso and Callao; he served on the Pacific, West Indies and Asiatic stations; was attached to the Brooklyn, Mare Island and Portsmouth navy yards, and instructed a class at Annapolis. He spent three years in surveying the North Pacific coast, and four years in inspecting lighthouses.

He, on board the Oregon, helped to destroy the Spanish fleet at Santiago, and was advanced six numbers in rank for his distinguished services. At the age of 59 he again was advanced in rank, seven numbers, and promoted to Rear Admiral.

Rear Admiral Clark rounded out his career as commander of the League Island navy yard; as governor for three years of the Naval Home at Philadelphia; and as President of the Naval Examining and Retiring Board. He was relieved from the active service in 1905, on his 62nd birthday.

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Negotiations for new wages and working agreements with the western railroads were begun today at a conference of a committee of the general manager's association and W. G. Lee, president of the brotherhood of railroad trainmen, and L. E. Sheppard, president of the order of railroad conductors. W. M. Jeffers, general manager of the Union Pacific, headed the committee which represented practically all the lines west of the Mississippi river.

The negotiations were started last February but were discontinued in May pending meetings of the "Big Four" brotherhood and with the shopmen's strike, which began July 1, were dropped for the time being. Messrs. Lee and Sheppard have reached an agreement with principal

All parties to the conference said there would be no announcements

150 TUBERCULAR IN SANITARIUMS

State Hospitals Almost Filled, Lewis Says in Statement.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 2.—With 150 patients now in the three state tubercular sanatoria and the capacity total of those three institutions limited to 250, Dr. A. R. Lewis, state health commissioner, expects that there will be more applicants for admission by Christmas than can be taken care of, he said recently.
Commissioner Lewis said that each fall many new cases are sent to the sanatoria from counties all over the state, and that the peak of the number of applications and admissions is not usually reached until about mid-winter. But he added that the applications this year are more numerous than they have ever been in his experience.
The commissioner said that preparations are under way to house at least one hundred patients in tent cottages at the Tallihina sanatorium, in order to take care of the expected large number of patients. This will increase the capacity of the state institutions to a total of 350, he pointed out. New tents are being purchased and placed in a grove of large pine trees, he said. The tents will be fitted with windows, floors, and the latest hospital appliances, with all arrangements made to secure the maximum amount of fresh air.

100 at Tallihina.
He said that the present capacity of the Tallihina institution is 100 of the Clinton hospital, 100, and of the Boley sanatorium for negroes, 50. There are 25 patients, fourteen of whom are bed-ridden, now at Boley, with eight more applications on file; there are 55 patients at Tallihina and 70 at Clinton, he said.
Commissioner Lewis indicated he would ask the next legislature for increased appropriations for the operation of all three institutions, since present funds are not enough to take care of more than the capacity number of patients. He said that the appropriation at Tallihina is $15,000 a year, with a revolving fund which is repaid by counties; the appropriation at Clinton, he said, is $60,000 with no revolving fund; the fund at Boley is $20,000 with no revolving fund.

"The Bachelor Daddy" Splendid.
Thomas Meighan, Paramount star, and his well-balanced cast, including Leatrice Joy, leading woman, and five famous screen kiddies, Charlotte Jackson, Barbara Maier, Bruce Guerin and the mischievous DeBriac Twins, present a splendid performance of "The Bachelor Daddy," which is showing at the McSwain theatre.
The picture has a pleasing theme of a man's love for five motherless children entrusted to his care by a dying friend. He brings the children to his home, to the disgust of his intended bride and to the delight of his private secretary. As the story develops, blind love is awakened with surprising results. The picture is based on Edward Peple's novel "The Proxy Daddy," and was filmed under the direction of Alfred Green.

Welcome I.O.O.F. Visitors

We welcome you, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, and hope that your visit to our city will be a most pleasant one.

THESE YANKS MAY STAR IN SERIES

—this is Bancroft— and world's series. Helped Yankees and Phillies cop in 1915 and McGraw won last year. McGraw traded Art Fletcher and Pitcher Hubbell to get him.

From "Ochloia" Groh's Heinie Groh broke into baseball. McGraw couldn't see him as a rookie, but after Groh had played eight years in Cincinnati nabbed him this season.

Snyder weathered the attacks several great looking rookies made on his job. Started big league career behind the plate for Cards in 1914. Joined Giants three years ago.

MANAGER JOHN MCGRAW

JOHNNY RAWLINGS

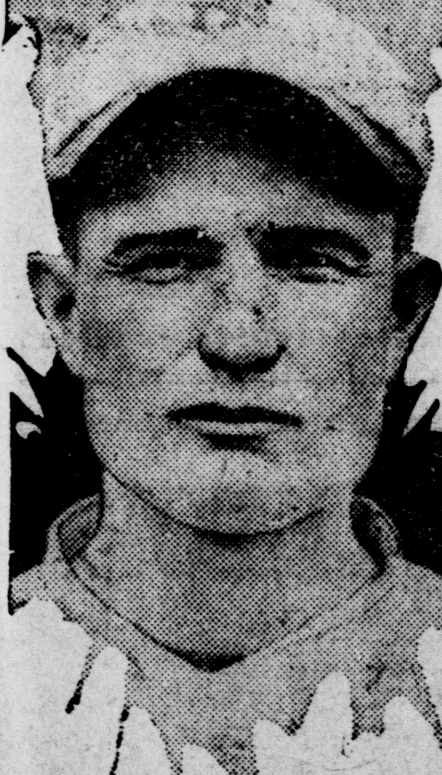

The two deals that brought Bancroft and Emil Meusel to the Giants saved Johnny Rawlings from the Braves en route to Philadelphia and then to New York. Hard luck!

JESS BARNES

Out in Keokuk, Ia., where he was a pitcher. That's where Jess learned to pitch. Won big league spurs with Boston Braves. Four years with the Giants.

EARL SMITH

Was hanging around Hot Springs one spring looking for baseball job when Manager Robinson of Dodgers picked off Rochester club to join Giants grabbed him same year.

By Norman E. Brown
ONE OF THE MERRIEST
Little deals which will be staged if the New York Giants and New York Yankees clash in the coming world's series will be that between Aaron Ward of the Yankees (in this corner) and Frank Frisch of the Giants (Harruh.) These two lads, holding down the second basing positions on their clubs will try to settle the friendly feud that started last fall.

On the season's work Frisch seems to have an edge on Ward. Aaron's playing has been o. k., but his hitting—which figures in a man's general worth to his club—has fallen off this season. Last year he hit .300. This year his average is nearer the .250 mark.
Ward hit fairly timely in the series last fall, however, collecting six hits. This leads his friends to believe he can be counted on this fall.
Ward has been with the Yanks since he was called up from the Charleston club in 1917. He took time out to help slap the gaiser in 1918, and it was not until 1920 that he got back into the game as a regular. He rapidly made a name for himself as a speedy, clean fielder.

His worth to his club is increased by the fact that he can play third as efficiently as he can hold down second. His home is in Fort Smith, Ark.
12 AMERICAN DESTROYERS OFF TO GUARD U. S. RIGHTS
NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 2.—The twelve American destroyers ordered to the Near East to protect American interests in the Mediterranean sailed today under command of Capt. C. M. Tozer. Unless the vessels are ordered elsewhere by radio the first stop will be Gibraltar.

OFFENSIVE POWERS OF PROBABLE FOES SEEMS EQUAL NOW

Yanks and Giants Depend Much on Shrewd Work of Their Managers.

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—In offense, strength there is little to choose between the possible contenders in the 1922 World's Series, as they appear grouped upon paper, and only with the aid of the fates that decide that some players shall hit when a hit is most needed or that another shall fall when failure is most costly can a preference be made.
Of course it is by the arrangement and distribution of the batting strength that a manager obtains the most possible out of his team, and the actual attacking value of a ball club must be gauged by what the line-up produces. In evaluating the teams, moreover, consideration must be given to their offensive abilities in relation to their defensive character.
An instance of this is an infield that may lead all the other infields of the league in batting, yet be so poor in fielding that its rating would place it third or fourth among all the eight clubs. The maximum offensive power of an infield, which includes the three basemen, shortstop, catcher and best hitting pitcher is their average batting strength.
On the latter basis the New York Yankees lead the Giants by one point, having a total of .319 to the Nationals' .318. Considering the St. Louis club, which had a fighting chance to win out in the American League up to the close of the season, the Giants are still one point under the club that will represent the younger league. The Browns, too, hit .319.
These figures are based on the hitting of Kelly, Frisch, Bancroft, Groh, Smith, Snyder and Neft of the Giants; Pipp, Wards, Scott, Schang, Bush and Dugan, of the Yankees; and Sisler, McManus, Gerber, Foster, Severeid and Van Gild, of the Browns.
In outfielding strength the Giants are superior to either of the American League teams, a mid-season average of .335 being tallied by Meusel, Young, Cunningham and Stengel of the Giants, to .324 for Tobin, Jacobsen and Williams of the Browns. The Yanks are third with Ruth and Meusel hitting .316.
The batting averages of the three clubs, including those men likely to cut a figure in the World's Series, for and including the games of Thursday, September 14, follow:

OFFICERS SEEK CLUE TO FATAL WILSON BLAZE

(By the Associated Press)

WILSON, Oct. 2.—Officers investigating the burning of the Travelers Hotel here early yesterday and the finding of the body of S. J. Latham, tank builder, in the ruins, are unable to determine the origin of the fire, or explain marks on the head of the dead man.

It is believed that Latham was killed and the hotel burned to destroy clues to the crime. All persons in the building had made their escape before the fire had made much headway, firemen reported and some of the first to arrive at the scene reported a strong smell of kerosene. The building was a complete loss.

Latham was survived by his widow who lives at Taylor, Tex., and his father, of Blackrock, N. C.

Early in the evening a fire was discovered in the house, but prompt action by firemen prevented its doing much damage. Later in the night it broke out again and before it could be brought under control, several rooms of the house had been damaged.

Oklahoma Crop Notes.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 30, 1922.—Word comes from the A. & M. college at Stillwater that there is an increase of 114 percent in the freshman class in agriculture this year over last. Another interesting fact is that a large majority of the old students have returned. From all indications this should be the biggest and best year in the history of the school.

This office has had a number of requests in regard to picric acid for explosive purposes. The following information is for your convenience: The U. S. Department of Agriculture has for distribution some 12-500,000 pounds of salvaged picric acid for distribution to land owners for clearing purposes. It is a safe explosive, has no toxic effects and is stronger than the dynamite used for agricultural blasting.

For stump and rock blasting picric acid can be used in exactly the same way as dynamite. The distribution must be made through some state agency working in co-operation with the government. The bureau cannot receive individual orders or remittances for same. There is no co-operating agency in Oklahoma at the present time, however, where a sufficient number of parties are interested to contract for a car-load lot, arrangements can be made to procure same. For further information address this office.

The final decision by the judges of the agricultural exhibits at the state fair gave Canadian county first, Blaine county second and McCurtain county third. Blaine county took first in 1921. A large majority of the exhibits and live stock entries will leave for Muskogee immediately after the close of the fair to compete for honors at the Oklahoma Free State fair, to be held from October 2nd to 7th.

An increased interest is noticed in all parts of the state in the canning and preserving of the surplus garden and fruit products.

Corn gathering is in progress, however the yield is light and few places will have a surplus. Much will be shipped into the state this year.

Cotton opening fast. The bulk of the crop will be picked by November 1. Owing to the light yield, the supply of pickers is inadequate.

Pastures are very dry in practically all sections and most farmers are selling their surplus stock. If wheat pasture does not materialize the situation will be very bad as all feed crops have been cut short by the continued dry weather of the past growing season.

Our last report on cotton, until the 12th of December, will be released on the 3rd of October and the General crop report will be released on October 9th. Anyone who does not receive these reports regularly can have their name placed on our mailing lists by mailing your request to this office.

J. A. WHITEHURST,
President, State Board of Agriculture.

SUPREME COURT OPENS TODAY

Justice Holmes, the oldest member of the court, who submitted to a serious operation last summer, was present for the convening of the present term, and declared himself ready for the duties of a crowded docket Justice Day, nominated by the president to act as umpire in the settlement of German debts, and whose retirement from the bench was rumored, was prepared to conduct his judiciary duties, giving no outward indication of any intention to lay them down in the near future.

Adhering to the usual practice of deferring its session to permit a formal call by the court at the White House, the program for the opening session was confined only to the usual acceptance of motions for admission of attorneys to practice.

The president set aside one o'clock to receive the court.

Hearings of cases will begin in the court on Tuesday but there will be no opinions or orders from the court until the following Monday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The supreme court of the United States met at noon today for its October term with two of the nine seats on the bench vacant. One was filled when Chief Justice Taft administered the judicial oath to former Senator George Sutherland of Utah as the successor of John H. Clarke of Ohio, who resigned during the recess.

Following the inducting into office of the new associate justice, the court admitted to practice a number of attorneys and then adjourned for the day to proceed to the White House to pay a visit of respect to the president.

600 TURKISH TROOPS CROSS THRACE BORDER
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.—A band of 600 Turkish irregulars crossed the border of Thrace and Sinekli to the west of Silivri (40 miles west of Constantinople) and attacked the Greek outposts. They were being forced to withdraw when reinforcements arrived and the Turks were thrown back across the boundary.

Wild canaries were originally gray or green in color.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

Eating too much meat may clog kidneys, then the back hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have headache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any drug store here, take a tablespoon full in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. (Adv.)

Beware of the Slick Imitator with the "Nail File" Test

On account of the unusual popularity of REAL SILK FASHIONED HOSIERY and our method of selling direct from our Mills to the wearer, there are many unscrupulous imitators, who purposely use the term "Mills" to deceive. For your protection, our authorized Representative wears the gold REAL SILK button in his lapel. If in doubt telephone our Local Branch Manager.
